MPV Selected in Healthcare Informatics Magazine's "Top 100"

MPV also ranked as one of the industry's "Others to Watch"

AUSTIN, Texas. – June 19, 2007 – Medical Present Value, Inc. (MPV), a leading provider of financial tools and expert services to manage payor contracts and audit reimbursement, today announced that the company placed in Healthcare Informatics' top 100 list and was one of six named in the "Others to Watch" category.

The list, which is compiled annually, ranks public and private healthcare IT companies based on the previous year's revenue. The "Others to Watch" section highlights a small number of companies to watch for in the next year.

"These achievements demonstrate that physician practices realize the importance of managing payor contracts effectively and are moving quickly to address the problem. We're very appreciative of our clients and hard working associates that contributed to this continued growth and momentum," said Tom Stampiglia, CEO of MPV.

About MPV
